

*South West
Children's Palliative
Care Strategic Clinical Network*

When relationships are challenged: a masterclass in advanced communication skills, complex decision making and ethics in paediatric palliative care

Engineers House, Clifton Down, Bristol BS8 3NB
Thursday 2 May 2024 - 09.30 to 16.30

If you are a doctor or senior nurse looking to develop your knowledge and skills in complex decision making for life-limited children, please join us for this meeting in Bristol

The day will cover:

- How to embed values-based decision-making in clinical practice.
- Recognising and managing conflict.
- Legal, professional and ethical aspects of decision-making.

Speakers:

Dr Sadie Thomas-Unsworth, Consultant Clinical Psychologist

Dr Peta Coulson-Smith, Consultant Paediatrician and NHS England South West Region Conflict Management Champion, Principal Teaching Fellow Medical Ethics and Law, University of Southampton

Dr Pam Cairns, Consultant Neonatologist and Chair of the Bristol Acute Trusts' Clinical Ethics Advisory Group

Dr Charlotte Mellor, Consultant in Paediatric Palliative Care

To register your interest please provide your details via the link or QR code below:
Communication skills, complex decision making and ethics in paediatric palliative care | NHS England Events

Training will be funded by the South West Children's Palliative Care Strategic Clinical Network